Travel to Poland

You can choose a flight to many cities (Warsaw, Wroclaw, Poznan, Krakow) and then take train to Lodz via PKP.

The most convenient is to travel to Lodz directly but there are not many connections eg. from London, Dublin, and few other destination (please check here <https://www.airport.lodz.pl/en/passenger-zone/our-destinations>)

There are connections from many cities to Warsaw Chopin Airport from which you can travel to Lodz (via train/bus).

Travel from Warsaw (Chopin Airport) to Conference Center

If you fly to Warsaw, it is best to travel to Lodz by train. The journey will take you approximately 2 hours. To take a train, you will need to transfer from Warsaw Chopin Airport to Warszawa Zachodnia station.

You can take a taxi, Uber, FreeNow, a bus, or a direct train to get there.

From Warsaw Chopin Airport to Lodz Fabryczna you can:

- take the train (1 stop) – approx 12 euro/2h - <https://www.pkp.pl/en/>
- take a bus (direct connection) – 5-12 euro/2h – <https://www.flixbus.pl>

The bus station and trainstation is located within an Airport:

Travel from Warsaw (Chopin Airport) to Conference Center

IF you choose a train:

From Warszawa Chopin to Warszawa Zachodnia (1)

you can take S2 train (direction: Sulejowek Milosna). Train station is on the airport (see next slajd).

From Warszawa Zachodnia to Lodz Fabryczna (2)

you can take LKA train (direction: Lodz Fabryczna, you need to check platform at the station).

You can buy tickets for both trains at PKP site: <https://www.pkp.pl/en/>

You can also buy ticket in the first train (1) in a ticket machine/via cash/card etc.

On the train (2) you can also buy it in the train but then its better to find a controller and ask for it (you pay approximately 4 euro more)

Preferably buy all tickets before – on line.

You dont have to print a ticket. Just take a photo/printscreens and have it on your phone. You will be asked to show your ID when controller ask you for a ticket.

From Lodz Fabryczna to Conference Center you can take a tram (4, 9, 12, 18) or a taxi/Uber/Freenow etc. To reach a tram you should get out from the train station throught one entrance, to reach taxi you go to (Kiss and Ride entrance).

Travel from Lodz Airport Central Poland to Conference Center

If you fly to Lodz, it is best to travel to Conference Center by taxi. The journey will take you approximately 30 mins. Taxi numbers are in the next slide.

But, if you would travel by bus you can take 65B (direction: Radogoszcz Wschód) to Lodz Kaliska, change the bus there to 86 (direction: Szpital CKD) to Rondo Solidarnosci, and walk 5 mins to Cenference Center.

How to move around Lodz?

Public transport in Lodz:

To check how to reach a given place in Lodz by public transport, it is best to use Google Maps which provides the bus and tram schedules and shows the route to your destination.

In order to travel by public transport, you need to obtain a ticket, which can be purchased in a newsagents or in a ticket machine in the bus or tram. You can only pay by card when using the ticket machines.

There are two basic kinds of tickets in Lodz – 20-minute ones and 40-minute ones. The former cost 4 zł, the latter 5 zł. The tickets for the buses and trams are the same. The ticket entitles you to change to other bus and tram lines.

If you travel by tram or bus, you need to punch the ticket in a ticket punching machine.
